

UNCLE SAM AGAIN CUTS PRICE OF ARMY FOOD

CONGRESS TO SPEED PASSAGE BILLS TO CURB PROFITEERS

NO PROTRACTED HEARINGS TO BE ALLOWED BY THE COMMITTEES.

Chicago Expects Arrest
DIRECT FIGHT TO BE MADE AGAINST SUGAR HOARDERS.
PRICES TUMBLE.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Wider powers for the prosecution of food profiteers were asked of congress today by Attorney General Palmer, who submitted to Senator Granger, chairman of the agricultural committee, a draft of amendments to the food control bill aimed to give him wider authority. Extension of the cast to apply to wearing apparel and the containers in which food, food and fertilizers are sold were among the things urged by the attorney general.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Congress today was prepared to speed up its legislative program designed to bring down the high cost of living. In response to demands not only from the people at large but from the members of congress themselves the committee before which various bills are pending today decided to grant no protracted hearings.

"It is time for action, and not for investigation," declared Representative Goodyknott, of West Virginia, who has introduced in the house a resolution demanding that the house judiciary committee report forthwith bills punishing profiteers, whether manufacturers, wholesalers, jobbers or retailers, and providing a plan for reducing the money in circulation so as to restore its value to the dollar and prevent additional trouble because of inflation.

WARRANTS AT CHICAGO
(International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—First warrants for the arrest of sugar hoarders, the first since the move in an effort to reduce the cost of living, probably will be taken out here today, according to R. A. Milroy, assistant district attorney, who has been weighing evidence against alleged sugar profiteers and hoarders.

"We are going to put the hoarders in jail and force them to turn loose their stocks," Milroy declared.

A direct drive is to be made here against sugar dealers.

Tumbling of prices of many foods here has begun to take on the appearance of a rout. Potatoes took another drop yesterday, butter went down 1-2 cent a pound, eggs dropped another penny on the dozen and poultry fell from 1 to 2 cents per pound.

EDMUNDSON RECEIVES COMPLAINTS REGARDING VIOLATION OF FOOD LAWS

County Administrator Promises Thorough Investigation and Quick Action if Charges Sustained.

Although he has not yet received official instructions from State Food Administrator Hobbie at Montgomery, W. B. Edmundson, county food administrator by request of A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general of the United States, has already begun to receive information regarding hoarding and profiteering, he stated today.

"These complaints against the hold-up men in trade have come unsolicited from numerous sources," said Mr. Edmundson, "and are being investigated. Furthermore, I want to call upon the public to file with me any information they have of the violation of the food laws, and I promise a quick and thorough investigation and speedy action where it is warranted by the proof."

Mr. Edmundson expects a material reduction in the Twin Cities and Morgan county in the cost of living, as the result of activities of the food authorities.

BOILER MAKERS TO RETURN TO WORK

FIRST BREAK IN RANKS OF STRIKERS AT CHICAGO.

(International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—A break in the strike of railroad shopmen, which has demoralized the rolling stock of the nation's transportation lines for the past 10 days, was seen here today in the action of the boiler makers of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad in voting to return to work, pending settlement of the shop dispute.

Reports reaching here indicate a modification of the situation in practically every section of the country with the exception of the Chicago district.

STRIKING CHORUS GIRLS GATHER COIN HARVEST IN WALL STREET

Brokers and Bankers Easily Separated by the Nimble-Footed Beauties.

(International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Whatever the general merits of the actor's strike that has knocked some of the gay lights out of Broadway, New York is about 99.9 per cent for the striking chorus girls.

Fourteen "walking delegates" of the new Chorus girls' union invaded Wall street and the down-town financial section today to seek popular support and they got it—oh, boy! they got it with no trouble at all. Brokers and bankers went flying out to the street to meet the touring carloads of beauties and to shout, "Who's all right—chorus girls," which was interpreted by the chorus girls to mean that their cause was all right.

The strikers demand the following: Free shows and silk stockings (for the theatre); half-pay for rehearsals lasting more than four weeks; no discrimination by managers in favor of "good lookers."

TENNESSEANS WIN SPECTACULAR GAME

BROOKS KNOCKED OUT IN THE
FIRST. LOCALS LOSE
7 TO 6.

LYNNVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 13 (Special).—Before a large crowd, Lawrenceburg won from Albany-Decatur Tuesday in a nip and tuck contest by a score of 7 to 6. Brooks, star hurler of the Tennessee outfit, was knocked out of the box in the first inning when Alabamians got away to a five run lead. Cocke, who relieved him was effective however, and Albany-Decatur counted only twice more.

Bennett twirled up to the eighth when he was replaced by Lewis. The Smith-Cook combination was working well in the seventh and Smith went across with a counter, tying the score. McCullough came across the plate with the winning run in the eighth after Bennett had walked one with the bases full.

The contest was the most spectacular played between the two teams this year and was featured by fast fielding, which kept the score down. The teams left last night for Columbia where a single game will be played today. Thursday a three-game series will be opened in Lawrenceburg.

MANY PRIZES WILL BE GIVEN AWAY BY ALBANY MERCHANTS

LUCKY TICKETS WILL BE DISTRIBUTED IN EACH COMMUNITY VISITED.

To Assign Numbers
BUSINESS MEN WILL DISPLAY
WINNING CARDS IN THEIR STORES.

Nearly $500 in prizes will be given away by the Albany merchants and business men in connection with the annual booster trip, it was announced today. The prizes have been donated by the business men of the city and the first stipulation of the committee was that none of them be valued at less than ten dollars.

When the boosters make their swing around the circles tickets will be given to each attendant when the booster's program is rendered in each community. The tickets will bear a serial number.

Upon the return of the boosters, a week will be designated "Prize Week in Albany" and each business man giving a prize will be assigned a number, corresponding with the number of one of the tickets given away.

The ticket holders in the communities visited will be expected to visit each store until he finds the one having the number corresponding with his. The merchants have been asked to display the numbers assigned them in conspicuous places so that the visitors may not even be troubled by asking but can see the number plainly.

BUILDING OF BRIDGE ACROSS TENNESSEE REGARDED AS SURE

Col. L. A. Dean Will Return Soon for Another Conference. Interurban Line Through River Valley Looms Up as Big Possibility.

Col. L. A. Dean, who was here last week looking over the location for the bridge across the Tennessee river, will return soon when the project will be discussed further. Col. Dean is said to be very enthusiastic over the outlook, and it is regarded as a certainty that the bridge will be built.

Col. Dean is expected to meet with local people in Birmingham, probably next week, and will motor here, continuing the trip overland to Nashville, to obtain information regarding the territory through which the principle highway of this section goes.

The Daily is not at liberty to divulge all of the present plans of the business men behind the project but the proposition is considered by those who have investigated it entirely feasible and assurances of aid have been given by a number of the leading citizens of the state.

Completion of the bridge probably would carry with it an interurban line, which has been projected many years, between several of the principal cities of the Tennessee Valley.

ALBANY SCHOOL FACULTY NAMED

The examinations for Conditioned pupils will be given by the week before the opening of school. The exact date will be announced by Mr. Cowart on his return to the city.

We are expecting the largest graduating class we have ever had. The city is having some very much needed improvements made on the school buildings and the High School will be in the best condition it has been in since it was first put up.

The following teachers have been elected, there are several new teachers that will be an addition to our schools and city.

High School: Principal and teacher of Mathematics and Science, W. H. Templeton; teacher of Latin and science, Miss Annie Elizabeth Newman; teacher of English, Miss Ripsham Dudley; teacher of History, Miss Lillian Barksdale; teacher of Mathematics, Miss Amelia Troy; teacher of Domestic Science, Miss Leta Bess Harrison.

Colored Schools: W. J. Wilson, Principal; Estelle Murdock, First Grade; Estelle Sykes, Upper grades.

The patrons in the first and second wards please notice that all seventh grade pupils in the second ward will attend school in their own ward. All fourth grade pupils in the first ward will attend in first ward. These grades have been transferred in order to relieve the crowded conditions in the Gordon and High schools.

Mr. Cowart will return in a few days and will receive a warm welcome.

As this is probably my only opportunity to do so, I want to take this means of expressing my appreciation to the friends and patrons of the Albany schools for the most loyal support. You have certainly done your part in making this year successful in spite of the war and influenza. Everybody worked in harmony with the teachers for the good of the schools, if there was dissatisfaction you never let it be known except in instances where it was best to make complaint. I hope you will be as loyal in the future and I believe you will. I thank you.

Respectfully,
KIMBALL B. JONES.
Acting Supt.

SEC. BAKER'S VISIT IS SIGNIFICANT ONE

The entire Tennessee Valley will feel a keen interest in the visit this week of Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, to Muscle Shoals. The purpose of the trip is to inspect the big nitrate plants there and the construction of the huge dam across the Tennessee river, for both of these projects are under the direct supervision of the war department, which might also be termed the "engineering" department, as all U. S. engineers are under its jurisdiction.

The visit of Mr. Baker is undoubtedly a significant one, for the War secretary has abandoned his desk at a busy time for no other reason than to travel down to Alabama and cast an eye over one of the biggest of federal projects. So business-like is the trip that Mr. Baker has made it known emphatically that he is not in the mood for public receptions, and that he is playing no politics and fostering no boom for the presidency. He is simply concerned as to the future of the nitrate plants and incidentally as to the harnessing of the Tennessee river to drive those plants.

It may be taken for granted that Mr. Baker's trip bodes much good for this immediate section. It means, now that the war is over and the republicans in the saddle in spots, no deliberate abandonment of this vast project is to be tolerated merely because it is located in the South. And if the development of the water power at the Shoals is not retarded, it is easy to foresee a period of wonderful expansion for North Alabama.

SENATORIAL SABOTAGE

There can be no settled conditions here or elsewhere until the Treaty of Peace is out of the way and the work of liquidating the war has become the chief concern of our Government and the other governments of the world. Until then business will inevitably remain speculative and sway this way and that again, with heavy losses. There can be no peace prices so long as our whole financial and economic system is on a war basis.—From President Wilson's address to Congress.

This is a profound statement of fundamental fact. Much is only emphasized by the indignant protests of the obstructionists in the Senate. The armistice with Germany was signed nine months ago tomorrow, and peace has not yet been proclaimed. As the President well describes the situation, "there is now neither peace nor war." We are all compelled to live in an economic No Man's Land, and adjust our existence to the daily shell-fire of food profiteers and wage profiteers.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has had the Treaty of Peace under consideration for a full month, yet it is still holding hearings which resemble nothing else so much as the inquisitions of a country justice of the peace. It has had access to the original Covenant of the League of Nations for nearly five months and the revised official text for more than half of that time. Yet it is not even ready to report and is holding up the peace of the whole world.

While Great Britain and Germany have ratified, practically everybody else is waiting to see what the United States does, and nobody knows what the United States will do, because Senator Lodge and his Republican associates do not know themselves. Their one definite aim is to make changes that can be used as campaign issue in 1920, but as to what those changes should be there are hardly five of the forty-nine Republican Senators who can agree. In the meantime they are leaving this country, as well as the rest of the world, a prey to every form of economic discontent and economic disorder.

This exploit in Senatorial sabotage is costing the American people millions of dollars a day. Neither financial nor industrial stability is possible while the issue of peace is clouded in doubt and uncertainty. We send Debs to jail, and yet all the injury that Debs ever wrought, all the damage that all the Industrial Workers of the World have ever accomplished, all the harm done by all the Bolshevik agitators in the country, is insignificant compared with the damage for which Henry Cabot Lodge and his associates in the Senate are responsible.

Congress may legislate until it is exhausted and the President may prosecute food profiteers until the court calendars are clogged, but there will be no stability for capital or for labor, for the producer or for the consumer, until peace is established and the serious work of liquidating the colossal losses of this war can begin. All that is elementary. The most important thing that has been put into cold storage in the United States is not meat or butter or poultry or eggs, but the Treaty of Peace.

If the American people ever expect to get their affairs in order and take up the business of reconstruction, they must begin first with the Senatorial obstructionists who are today the gravest menace to world peace. The power is in the Senate and the responsibility is with the Senate. Every day that it delays action brings this country, and brings all Europe nearer to the crater of a social and economic volcano.—New York World.

WHY CAN'T WE DO IT?

(Florence News.)

The city of Albany, which modestly admits that it is alert, aggressive and active, and which claims not only to be the geographical center but the trading center of North Alabama, is about to pull something that could be imitated with great benefit to the city of Florence.

Forty of the leading citizens of Albany call themselves the Booster Club, and they have provided themselves with a brass band and commandeered ten automobiles. Beginning with next Tuesday the forty Boosters will take a series of trips into the territory surrounding Albany. They will distribute ice cream "Made in Albany" while their band plays; they will give away souvenirs, and some gifted hot air merchant will acquaint the assembled multitude with the virtues of Albany and its jobbers and manufacturers.

The first of the trips will take the Boosters on a swing through the eastern end of their home county, and on the second trip they will invade the good county of Limestone and preach the gospel of Albany on foreign soil. On the next day they will make a break into territory that naturally belongs to Florence and come down into Lawrence as far as Town Creek. The next day they will swing through the western part of Morgan, just touching Lawrence county again and, on the last day, the campaign through Lawrence will be continued.

What we want to particularly impress on you is the fact that these folks up in Morgan are trying to establish better trade relations with the territory which surrounds them. They are trying to get all these people in this territory to regard Albany as the natural shopping center for all their needs—and they will probably get some good results from their work.

Florence naturally has one of the best rural markets in the state. Practically all of this big county of Lauderdale must come to Florence for its supplies—if the roads leading in to Florence are maintained. A part of Wayne county, Tennessee, must lay in Florence what it cannot get in Lawrenceburg.

Have we established the right sort of relations with these people whom we expect to buy from us? Do they know they can buy all the things in Florence that we have to sell? If they do, we do not need any automobile tours with brass band accompaniments; but if they do not, we do need them.

This is a matter which can be handled by the Florence Chamber of Commerce, and which you ought to bring up in the Chamber of Commerce, if you are selling anything that you want to get advertised to the rural population of our trade territory.

The News wants to join the C. of C. Boosters, and The News believes that a series of such trips will be of benefit to Florence merchants, manufacturers and jobbers.

Says New York Likes the Drouth; Theatres Are Dark

That New York likes the "bone dry" laws was the statement made here today by A. Bernstein, well known local cotton factor, who has just returned from an extended trip east.

"I found that sentiment in the metropolis was so strongly in favor of closed saloons, that the majority of persons with whom I talked declared that New York City would vote dry if an election were held tomorrow," said Mr. Bernstein.

While in New York, Mr. Bernstein was denied the privilege of attending the larger theatres, owing to the actor's strike. "Every theatre of prominence was dark," he said, "and there was no indication that they would be re-opened soon."

JUST IN PASSING*MEETING WAS ENTHUSIASTIC

"The meeting yesterday of a number of prominent residents of our neighboring communities with members of the Albany Board of Commerce insured the success of the booster trips," said Secretary Henry. "The addresses made at the luncheon were full of enthusiasm."

MAY GET SUB-STATION

"Albany's chance for getting a sub-station of the state naval recruiting office is very good," said Chief Gunner's Mate Benefield, who was here yesterday looking over proposed sites. "I have an ideal location selected and will recommend it. It will be several days before the matter is finally settled."

HIGH COST OF COFFEE

"Coffee is certainly keeping up with the other articles of the household in price soaring, if it isn't just a little ahead of some things," said a well known woman. "Goffee that formerly sold for 20 to 25 cents a pound now sells for 50 and 55 cents and is going higher."

MEAT PRICE DOWN

"The price of native meat is about the lowest of any article of food just now," said an operator of a market in Albany. "In yesterday's Daily one market advertised steak at 15 cents, beef for stew at 10 cents. The native meats are said by experts to be as good as any found in America and the people of Albany-Decatur are reaping a double benefit by using the native products. The price is lower and the producers of this section are encouraged to increase the production."

Extracting Salt From Ocean.

Experiments in Norway with a view to extracting salt from ocean water by means of electricity have been successful, and two salt factories will be started for this purpose in the near future. Each factory is calculated to produce 50,000 tons of salt a year for a start, but they will be so built that the production can be brought up to double the quantity, if necessary. Besides the salt, different by-products will be made.

Men have always liked that crisp, appetizing Virginia taste. Last year they smoked more than five (5) times as much Virginia tobacco in their cigarettes as all foreign-grown tobaccos combined.

But to really enjoy Virginia at its best—to get the full flavor out of every puff—don't smoke it mixed with other tobaccos—smoke it straight!

Smoke it in a Piedmont, the all-Virginia cigarette.

LOOK AT YOUR TONGUE! IS IT BROAD, WHITE, FLABBY? —YOUR BLOOD NEEDS ZIRON!

When Your Tongue Is White and Flabby, It Is a Sign That You Are Anemic and That Your Blood Needs Ziron Iron Tonic, For the Benefit of Your Weakened System.

Look at your tongue in the mirror! It ought to be pointed, pink, clean and firm. If it is broad, white, coated, flabby, it is probably a sign that you are anemic, that your blood lacks red corpuscles, that you are not in good health, that your system needs iron to bring it up to proper condition.

When your blood needs iron, take Ziron, the new Iron Tonic, which contains also the hypophosphites of lime and soda and other valuable tonic ingredients prescribed by the best physicians for this form of trouble.

When you feel tired and miserable, lack ambition, suffer from indigestion, rheumatic pains, gastric catarrh, depression of spirits and a general feeling of being "under the weather", why not try Ziron to help you back to health?

Ziron, the new compound of iron, contains no habit-forming drugs. It is a safe, reliable tonic remedy—good for men, women and children.

Mr. R. L. Poston, of Little, La., writes: "Some weeks ago I was suffering with something like dumb chills. I just ached all over, my skin would feel clammy. I ached worse from my knees down. I didn't rest well nights, and my appetite wasn't good. I was afraid I would get down in bed and so much to do in the Spring of the year. I began to look around for something to help me and decided to try Ziron. I had not taken one third of a bottle until I felt much better. I grew stronger, began to get hungry and did not have any more of the chills. I think Ziron is a splendid tonic."

SPECIAL OFFER: Buy a bottle of ZIRON, today, at your drugstore and give it a fair trial, according to directions on the bottle. If, after using up one bottle, you find it has not benefited you, take the empty bottle back to the drugstore and he will refund what you paid him for it. We repay him, so there is no reason why he should not repay you. This offer only applies to the first trial bottle.

LOCAL BOY TELLS TRANSPORT WORK

PORTER E. VAUGHN IS BACK HOME AFTER LONG SERVICE OVERSEAS.

(By J. E. Blair.)

According to Frank B. Vaughn, of the Car Department of the Louisville and Nashville shops, his nephew, Porter E. Vaughn has just been mustered out of the army at Camp Gordon, and has returned to Albany, after having spent over a year in military service on the western front and in Germany with the army of occupation.

"My nephew was trained mostly at Camp Green, N. C., where he went January 5, 1918. He sailed for France the following May on the U. S. S. Von Steuben, a converted German ship of 16,000 tons, known when a cruiser as 'Kronprinz Wilhelm'.

At that time this vessel was the heaviest armed transport in the United States service and was equipped as a second class cruiser.

"My nephew said that as they neared the danger zone, near France, that a convoy of 10 destroyers met them, which seemed to spring up from nowhere.

"When the battle of Chateau Thierry opened near the middle of July, my nephew was so busy in the transport service that for as long as three days at a time he was in constant action. The slogan of his company was: 'We haul anything, anywhere, any time, for any body; night work our specialty.' During these times the enemy air forces were continually active, he said, and our wagons had to be camouflaged. My nephew was busy at the time of the signing of the armistice last November and was sent on into Germany as a part of the army of occupation. Speaking of the conditions behind the German lines he said: 'The roads behind the enemy lines were in horrid condition and were eloquent proof of his frenzied efforts to hold his line at all costs.'"

Interesting Scene

Mr. Vaughn, continuing, stated that his nephew spoke of the entrance into Lorraine as follows: 'The first city we entered in Lorraine was Gros-Hattengen. The streets of this city were gaily decorated to celebrate its deliverance from the enemy. Men, women and children all along the streets greeted us with friendly nods and smiles and would often shout: 'Vive la France, and Vive la America.' There were very few homes that did not fly the Allied flags.

"When we arrived in Germany, the people reasonably expected the same treatment that they had given Belgium and for a time would keep themselves away from the troops. Food was not so scarce, but it was without variety. Potatoes was the staple food. The coffee was made of roasted barley grains and chopped acorns and was tasteless. Their war bread was extremely heavy and unpalatable. The little children had an undernourished appearance. One striking thing was the number of children with their heads tied up and their faces covered with running sores and scabs.

"Some of the time we were in Germany the weather was severely cold, and the roads were covered with ice and snow."

"My nephew showed me a copy of an order of the day," concluded Mr. Vaughn, "from the French General in command of the 7th French army, that was served by the transport service he was in, which was as follows: 'The commanding General of the 7th Army Corps congratulates the personnel of the Motor Supply train of the 4th U. S. Infantry Division, who night and day, with untiring good will rendered valuable assistance to the French army troops during battle.'"

"Another similar order, concluded as follows: 'We mourn our dead. For the living there is the work of tomorrow.'"

What Is Wise Spending?

Wise spending is the foundation of intelligent saving. We must spend to live; just as we must work to earn.

If we spend foolishly, we get less for our work, have less to save, less to spend in the future.

Wise spending means that we think before we spend. Then we buy, to our ability, what we really need today. But we wisely hold some money for tomorrow's, or next month's or next year's needs or unforeseen emergencies.

Wise spending gives us more for our work now, and leaves more money for future spending.

It is getting full value in goods, comforts, service, advancement, and fun.

War Savings Stamps are a wise purchase.

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

You can rely on Cardui. Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women! It should help. "I was taken sick, seemed to be . . ." writes Mrs. Mary E. Veste, of Madison Heights, Va. "I got down so weak, could hardly walk . . . just staggered around. . . I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, or before taking quite all, I felt much better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to do my work. I take it in the spring when run-down. I had no appetite, and I commenced eating. It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

The Ford one-ton truck may well be classed as an agricultural necessity, it fits into and fills so many wants on the farm. It is a reliable bearer of farm burdens, not only doing the work of several horses quicker and better than the horse, and does not "eat its head off" when not working. The aggressive farmer has only to consider the possibilities of the Ford truck and he is ready to buy one. We judge this to be so from the way farmers are buying them.

BROTHERLY LOVE PASTOR'S SUBJECT SUNDAY MORNING

According to his previously published announcement, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, Dr. W. P. Wilks, Pastor of the Central Baptist church, preached a sermon on Brotherly Love, with special reference to the reconstruction period through which the world and this country is now passing.

The preacher impressed the fact that normal strength had not yet come to any country or people since our prostration with the great military disease called war, and concluded that every effort of everybody should be made with consideration of the other fellow. "At this time especially," declared the speaker, "lest by brotherly conduct we lose the great victory gained by our sailors and soldiers in the world war."

Dr. Wilks called especial attention to the editorial in the Albany-Decatur Daily of Saturday, which had stressed the need of great care on the part of all true Americans at this time. The sermon was based on the words of St. Paul: "Let brotherly love continue," and was in part as follows:

"Did you ever visit a church where people looked daggers at one another across the aisles? If so, you know what a church is when bereft of brotherly love. But the writer of the text had in mind something even wider than Christian fellowship. It is a brotherly love which goes into any and every group and makes life therein worth the living. We have

 of the town and it's White*

felt what hatred will do in the recent years, when we talked more of our enemies and less of our friends. And the seed planted during the recent strike will bear fruit through our generation. To it is due the present unrest and widely manifested lack of brotherly feeling between the nations and within so many of them. The antidote our age needs is not so much new and hitherto untried theories as a wider application of the old doctrine of brotherly love. And yet the war brought forth a greater manifestation of this than in any war heretofore. The Red Cross and other agencies ministering to friend and enemy alike in their distress showed that the world's sympathy is growing broader, and the millions at home who backed these agencies with their money and prayers prove that the number of those who bear brotherly love to others is a mighty host.

Value Demonstrated

Our own Church is coming more and more to demonstrate the value of brotherly love by its practice thereof and the consequent growth it is enjoying. I am glad to dwell in a town which has recently shown that there is such a fraternal tie binding us together that a thing which in other days might have led to serious results had passed so quietly that no sores or scars are left anywhere, so far as I have been able to discover. It is not my desire to discuss the merits or demerits of the recent strike; but it is certainly worth speaking words of commendation on the way our people behaved themselves, acted brotherly, during it. I talked to many who were in favor and others who were opposed, but not one word of bitter censure did I hear anywhere. And every old idea of what a strike is was dispelled by the quiet, orderly way in which everybody behaved.

Our author urges that the spirit of brotherly love be constantly cultivated. There are many ways in which this may be done.

First: Let us always avoid harshly judging our fellowmen. For one thing, our own proneness towards sin should make us more tender in judging our brother. As we would have him pass judgment on us in our failures, even so let us judge him in his. Again, we know so little of the motives of others that we are not competent judges. No one can see what is behind the shell in which his brother man lives. Jesus, who knew, was filled with holy compassion for those against whom the people of His age manifested unholiness and indignation. We can well leave to God the matter of judging others, for He has the knowledge which can never be ours. He knows the inner life; we only behold the outward appearance.

Secondly: We can add much to the brotherly love of any group by being careful to say nothing which would wound another. To the hurt of themselves and others, many are more gifted with tongue talent than with any other kind. And how much harm this has caused! How many bruised hearts! A little girl said, "Mother, I was a peacemaker today." When asked how, she replied, "I knew something which would have made two people mighty mad with one another—and I didn't tell it to either of them." Much would the world be helped if such peace-makers abounded everywhere.

Appreciates Daily

Thirdly: It will help much to remember that we are not dwelling together simply today. Often when we would feel ready to withdraw friendly affection from our fellows it will help us to recall the experiences of the past. Here I am glad to call attention to a recent editorial in our own daily paper. The more cheerful do I do this when I have so often noted how ready we are to censure the paper when it does not exactly suit us and how slow to commend it when it deserves commendation (as our paper so frequently does). Could people but appreciate the worth of the paper in community building, there would surely be more boosts and fewer knocks. More cash and fewer kicks! But the editorial I started to commend was that which urged our people to consider the record we had all made working together during the war, before passing censure upon any of those who had so nobly done their part. If we would remember this we would be slow to call unpatriotic those who have so nobly demonstrated their patriotism. And this is a rule worth applying in all our relations with one another. Instead of becoming enraged or out of sorts with one another about any momentary occurrence let us recall the past in which we have succeeded by living together in brotherly affection. Too, we must live with and do business with our fellows tomorrow, and the other to-morrows to come. Would we spend today with the to-morrows in view the difference of today could not appear quite so important. And then these to-morrows will end after awhile, "For here have we no continuing city," adds the writer. And that tomorrow of waiting will be considerably brighter if we have dwelt together as we should while journeying towards it.

Finally: Let us as Christians remember the pattern given to us. Our Saviour manifested a love which extended to those who were His enemies. When this world sought to slay Him, He did not withdraw His love from it. "Let brotherly love continue."

Why hens go on a strike!

The feed elements that make whites of eggs are entirely different from those that make yolks. When hens aren't fed both the white and yolk making elements, they can't lay.

PURINA SCRATCH FEED PURINA CHICKEN CHOWDER

Missouri Experiment Station tests prove that 100 lbs. of wheat, corn, oats, barley and kafir corn make (above bodily maintenance) an average of 224 yolks to 154 whites. Based on data from the same experiments, Purina formulas produce, (above bodily maintenance), as follows:

Purina Scratch Feed	247.49 yolks	142.11 whites
Purina Chicken Chowder	182.05 yolks	282.55 whites
Combined Ration	429.54 yolks	424.66 whites

These Purina feeds not only make a practically equal number of whites and yolks but more of both than ordinary feeds. Note that Purina Chicken Chowder contains the necessary white-forming elements to balance up the yolk-making grain ration. That's why it makes hens lay so heavily. Instead of the yolks being absorbed by the hen's system, Purina Chicken Chowder makes the whites to complete the eggs and they are laid. Thus we can absolutely guarantee more eggs or money back.

As Purina Chicken Chowder is fed with Purina Scratch Feed as directed, you take no risk. ## AMUSEMENTS

"THE UNBELIEVER" AT MASONIC THEATRE TODAY

The greatest patriotic picture produced since the Great War began will be shown at the Masonic theatre today.

This is "The Unbeliever," based on the novelette, "The Three Things," by Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews, and produced in co-operation with the United States Marine Corps.

"The Unbeliever" is a thrilling and inspiring production. It is safe to say that it will make a sensation. It will attract not only the habitual patrons of motion picture theatre, but those who attend only when some extraordinary production is shown.

The Marine Corps take a prominent part in this intensely interesting production and, seen in action, they show themselves to be "First in the Fight, Always Faithful."

With the maneuvers of the Marines as a background, "The Unbeliever" has to do, among other things, with the love story of Philip Landicutt, late of one of Long Island's exclusive colonies, now a private of Marines, and Virginia Harbroke, a Belgian girl of gentle birth caught in the horrible vortex of the war and a victim of some of its terrible phase.

Raymond McKee as Philip Landicutt and Marguerite Courtot as Virginia Harbroke are supported by an excellent cast. The story is full of action, and holds the interest absorbingly from beginning to end.

Quite Simple Remedy.

Men who are compelled to work at night frequently are heard to complain that they are unable to sleep in the daytime. We have suffered from that affliction while working on a morning newspaper. We know of but one sure cure. That is to get a job working days. The desire to sleep in the daytime then becomes as natural as breathing.—Kansas City Star.

To which the little one made answer: "Oh, mother, I can't unthink about my jolly."
